A story of friendship and faithfulness, Seussical Jr. ties together a myriad of beloved characters from the world of Dr. Seuss. When Horton the Elephant hears a desperate cry for help echoing from the tiny world of Who, little does he know that this will catapult him into a journey the likes of which he's never known. Throughout the Jungles of Nool Horton is seen as one loony elephant! But by staying true to himself and faithful to his commitments he is able to befriend the young Who, JoJo, earn the love of his neighbor, Gertrude McFuzz, and nurture the egg of one Mayzie La Bird. But can he convince his tormenters that the Whos really do exist in time to save a whole world???
